Re: United States v. Robert Alexander, 19 Cr. 164 (ALC)

Dear Judge Carter:

On behalf of Mr. Alexander, as we discussed in Court yesterday during Mr. Alexander's guilty plea proceeding, I respectfully submit this letter to request a modification to the conditions of his pretrial release.

Previously, during the status conference before the Court on May 9, 2019, the Court modified the conditions of Mr. Alexander's release and added the condition that Mr. Alexander shall not communicate with any potential witness or potential victim in this case (the "May 9 Order"). Shortly thereafter, in an Order filed on May 15, 2019, the Court clarified that the May 9 Order did not apply to bar Mr. Alexander from communicating with his parents or children.

As we discussed in Court yesterday following Mr. Alexander's guilty plea, as we begin preparing for Mr. Alexander's sentencing, we respectfully request that the Court further modify the conditions of Mr. Alexander's release to permit Mr. Alexander to communicate with any other individuals with whom communications would otherwise be barred by the May 9 Order so long as such communications take place in my presence, as Mr. Alexander's counsel.

The government represented in Court that it had no objection to this request. My colleague contacted Mohammed Ahmed of the Pretrial Services Office in the Southern District of New York, who indicated that he takes no position on this request. On behalf of Mr. Alexander, I thank the Court for its consideration of this request.

Respectfully submitted,

Brian A. Jacobs
